

Credit Union Director

“Dash-Board”

Governance Resources
FOR

High Performance

by

John A. Vardallas CAE, CUDE

Professional Speaker/Business Strategist/Founder/CEO

The American Boomer Group

769 North Star Drive (Suite 207)

Madison, Wisconsin 53718 USA

Office Phone: (608) 221-4621 Cell: (608) 577-8707

E-mail: jvardallas@aol.com URL: <http://www.theamericanboomer.com>

How to Use These Resources

As a volunteer serving on the Board of Directors, you are responsible for mapping the direction for your Credit Union. This electronic (Adobe Reader format) and hardcopy packet contain Competency Checklists, Assessment Forms, Job Descriptions, Board Evaluation Forms, sample CEO Succession Plan and successful resources to help your Credit Union Board and Leadership Team improve your Governance competencies and activities.

Please review and share the information with new and experienced volunteers. The format is user-friendly and allows for easy downloading and distribution.

About John A. Vardallas, CAE, CUDE

Personal Mission: To assist people and organizations reach their potential

John Vardallas is an international Credit Union business consultant, speaker and author. He is Founder & CEO of The American Boomer Group based in Madison, Wisconsin - a management and leadership consulting group dedicated to developing leaders and helping organizations reach their potential. His work focuses on building productive workplaces, helping increase the effectiveness of staff and volunteers, business growth strategy, and world-class service.

An international trend watcher and provocateur, John helps Credit Union leaders synthesize industry trends into strategic organizational directions. He is one of the most popular speakers in the Credit Union industry and has spoken before and trained thousands of Credit Union staff and volunteers during his 25-year Credit Union career. He is also committed to improving the quality of life of the Baby Boom generation and making a difference in the lives of Americans. John has served in a volunteer capacity for religious, educational, association and Credit Union industry organizations.

John conducts staff development and volunteer seminars on topics ranging from leadership competencies, world-class service, growth strategies, future trends, and facilitates strategic planning retreats for a variety of Credit Unions across the country.

He has authored numerous articles on management and volunteer development and a recent book titled "Leadership Thoughts for Prospering in the 21st Century". John is also Editor of Today's Boomer, the business and lifestyle newsletter of The American Boomer Consulting Group.

Please contact John for more information about bringing him to your organization and a free e-Catalogue of Speaking Topics/Services:

Office: (608) 221-4621

Mobile/Cell: (608) 577-8707

Email: jvardallas@aol.com

Website: <http://www.theamericanboomer.com>